The Citizens Asked to Give the Mo. Baltimore Versus Richmond and Norgart Association the Lot at the Northwest Corner of Main

Some weeks ago the Mozart Association appointed a committee, of which Mr. R. H. Whitlock is chairman, with ample powers to prosecute their purpose of building a music hall suited to the needs and prospects of the city of Richmond.

This committee have considered many plans and projects, and carefully weighed the feasibility of each, and their conclu-sion is that the lot upon which the present hall stands is not deep enough for a hall with spacious stage and comfortable dress-Their idea is that a new site should be gotten, and casting around for a good lot gotten, and casting around for a good lot their eyes fell upon the quarter square at the northwest corner of Main and Sixth streets, occupied in part by Rogers & Mil-ler's marble-yard. It belongs to the Ma-sons, who will sell it for about $16,500, and the committee have secured a minety-days' option on it. The bope is that at no dis-tant day there will be a fine hotel erected on the Allan lot (southeast corner of Main and Fifth), and a music hall on the Masons' lot would be in just the place it ought to lot would be in just the place it ought to be. It is near the top of the hill; it is on a great thoroughfare; it is accessible from all parts of the city by street-cars, which pass immediately in front of it, and the depth and frontage of the lot would allow of the erection of a magnificent structure.

To attain their purpose the committee ask that the public-spirited and liberal people of Richmond give them the $16,500 needed to buy this lot.

With the lot theirs, the whole sum needed by the Association for the building can be obtained on a mortgage of the lot and

J. D. K. Sleight, Esq., has been elected business agent of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication, and has returned to his old home in this city. He will enter the lot. For a city of the business and population of Richmond to raise $16,500 ought not to be a great matter; it would certainly not be were we a little more accustomed to giving to public enterprises than we are. In that respect we bave much to learn, and with this hall there is opportunity for a good beginning.

The hall will serve many useful purposes besides being used by the Mozart Associa-tion. It is, indeed, a thing much needed here. It can be had without delay if the community will give the Association the money for the lot. Already the committeemen, in a private way, have secured over $2,000, and when they make their public canvass the whole sum ought to be, and they think meeting for the purpose of consulting with the southern transportation lines, and demanding from them a readjustment of the rates on merchandise to and from that city. They claimed that rates to Richmond and Norfolk over the associated roads of Virginia and the Carolinas were too much lower than Baltimore rates and should be reduced, or Norfolk and Richmond rates increased. A committee was appointed to wait on the representatives of the various lines. It was suggested by the ratiroad officials that Richmond and Norfolk were also inthat have committees be chosen from the last-named places, who should, with the committee appointed from Baltimore, lay before the transportation lines the ques-tion of freight rates, with a view of having the same properly adjusted in the interest of all. From Richmond we learn that the merchants of that city had arranged for the appointment of a committee, and proposed to call on the merchants of Nor-folk for the appointment of a similar committee to consult with the one appointed from Baltimore, and in the event that We are Really Sorry, but We Cannot the three were unable to agree upon rates which would be satisfactory to all, to call in an umpire who should decide the dif-ferences at issue, such decision to be binding upon all. We also learn that this arrangement was agreeable to the railroad rangement. We have since been informed, authorities. We have since been informed, rapidly; and as that is the only way to stop authorities. authorities. We have since been informed, however, that the committee appointed by the Baltimore merchants have declined a conference, and continue their demand for [lower] differential rates. in her favor against Virginia cities! Why, at this very time the rate per mile between Baltimore and Burkeville, Danville, and Greensboro', &c., is lower than between Richmond and those points? Richmond has not complained of this, be-cause there are competitive lines between Richmond and Baltimore, and she has thought that of that advantage Baltimore could not be righteously deprived; but no such liberality is exhibited towards us. The City Hall. In the opinion of many there is a grow-ing conviction that the location of the new City Hall on the old City Hall lot will be a great mistake, and that when it is in the power of the city to secure the Swan-Tayern lot, on the north side of Broad between Eighth and Ninth. That half-square is larger than the whole of the old City Hall square, and the erection of a handsome building on it would give Broad street a great hoom; whereas on the old site there. The Norfolk Ledger says: "Some time since the merchants of Baltimore held a building on it would give Broad street a great boom; where is on the old site there would be no stimulus given in any direction. Further, when the State builds a new capitol—as she will be able to do in a few years—if she puts it in the Capitol Square, it will completely overwhelm and overshadow our City Hall. For these reasons, and many more that could be urged, the hope in the breasts of many citizens will continue to the last that the Swan-Tayern lot will be selected.

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPRATE AS A RE PRIGERANT DRINK IN FEVERS.—Dr. C. H. S. Davis, Meriden, Conn., says: "I have used it as a pleasant and cooling drink in fevers, and have been very much pleased with it."

Cry, that our ten-dollar-suit sale don't please some of our fellow-laborers in the noble occupation of clothing male humanity. The public are evidently in sympathy with derstanding with the Richmond merchants in relation thereto, and see that they secure the advantage to which they are entitled by reason of their geographical position." This is indeed an important matter; but has not been neglected. The Committee thas not been neglected. The Committee row, or if you pass by the store, opposite and see what ten dollars will buy, A. Saks & Co., 1013 Main street.
